IN WOMAN'S REALM

is one thing that is emphasized in the department of fashion, it is the figure; but, for the present, we are leaving the matter of personal attraction.

The older maidens seem out of the picture. There are here and there a few who still adhere to crepe de chine, but the graceful and elastic and very adaptability to all forms of trimmings on the shoulders and are extremely pretty.

There is also a desire to be draped.

A NEW YEAR'S HIGHLIGHT
A blouse that is the embodiment of the latest in style, and the elaboration of panel blue crepe de chine upon which the narrowest bands of black ribbon are put to produce a plaid effect. The polo is matched with a plaid of stripes of stitching as is the lower part of the waist. The two divisions are separated by a band of black satin which bears the figure and rises to a scarcely perceptible point.

A deep square with a detachable lining is the next feature, which may be removed for evening purposes. The sleeves present something new, which is a separate entry.

The blouse is made of a material which is very light and airy, and is well suited to the summer months.

There is also a desire to be draped.

The proper paper for holiday dresses is crepe de chine, and white and white bows, and tied with scarlet bows.

A New Year's Dinner.

Oysters
Patties of mushrooms
Sauces
Cucumbers.

Saddles of mutton, English style.

Turkey with chestnuts and truffles.

Stuffed green peas.
Roast sweet potatoe.

Brie cheese.

Plum puddings and sauce.

Ice cream.

Fruits. Nuts and raisins. Cakes.

Coffee.

THE FEMININE OBSERVER.

The surest way to get money is to look as though had it.

The trouble with most women is that they never have any out of debt with anything more than a smile.

The day before Christmas may be filled with the desire to be a good mother or to be a good wife.

There are two things the modern apartment house distinctly at variance.

It is a spring tub and the other is a dumb waiter.

The pen and ink habit is a dangerous one, and it is well to remember that it can get back some note written in a moment of exuberance, and that it was too dark to see the mesmes.

After 40 years a man should take particular care of his health, because he can get no women to admit that he is over 40 there is great excuse for a woman to consider herself all the time.
